Woodhouse Photography

What are the qualities that you want in a wedding photographer? Images that capture the beauty and mood of your wedding day? Professionalism and quality that just can not be matched by having a family member or a low budget hobbyist photographer? A fun and comfortable atmosphere that enhances your experience and promotes natural expressions for special moments? A photographer who has a special eye and talent in both photography and Photoshop that turns your moments into artwork?

Adam Woodhouse of Woodhouse Photography has been a professional wedding photographer specializing in the Kawarthas for almost 10 years. Being a resident, Adam is well versed in the diverse venues the Kawarthas has to offer. Through a mixture of contemporary, traditional and a unique 'Kawartha style' of photography, for years Adam Woodhouse has delivered fantastic keepsakes. Visit his website at woodhousephotography.com
